

Caregiver Education Conference

WEDNESDAY
March 6, 2019

dedicated to the memory of Dr. Joe and Sarah Anne Poole Russell and in honor of all family caregivers

This year's event is a little different than in years past. We invite you to come early for a continental breakfast. We are offering three education sessions, each with something for everyone, and we will end by 1 pm to give those caregivers who cannot be gone all day a chance to attend.

What has not changed is our dedication to helping you find the dementia-related caregiving resources you need, offering quality education from experts in their field, and the opportunity to network with other caregivers.

We offer registration scholarships to family caregivers who need them and respite reimbursement for those who need help getting help for their loved one at home during the conference.
