Do you know someone that is suffering from Alzheimer's? There are millions of people around the world that have this disease. We want to help.

Dementia Alliance of North Carolina assists individuals living with Alzheimer's and all types of dementia and their caregivers to get the support they need by offering individual and family counseling and consultations, support groups, educational workshops and conferences and referrals and reimbursement for respite care. All funds raised stay in NC to support families in need and to fund local research. It takes Financial Resources to provide these services. New Bern is a huge biking community, so why not support an awesome organization and get a bike ride in with your friends? We are calling for all types of riders from casual riders to weekend warriors!

Cyclists have the option of three distances: 15 miles, 35 miles or 50 miles.

There will be plenty of rest stops with food and drinks. Our support team includes a sag wagon and bike resources/assistance. We want to make this a great experience for everyone and are here to offer you the support you may need.

Please come out and support this wonderful organization and get some great exercise!
